USER STORIES

*Detailed information is in the GitHub repository

As a Shipping Agent, I want a button to show the expired validities so that I know which information needs to be updated.

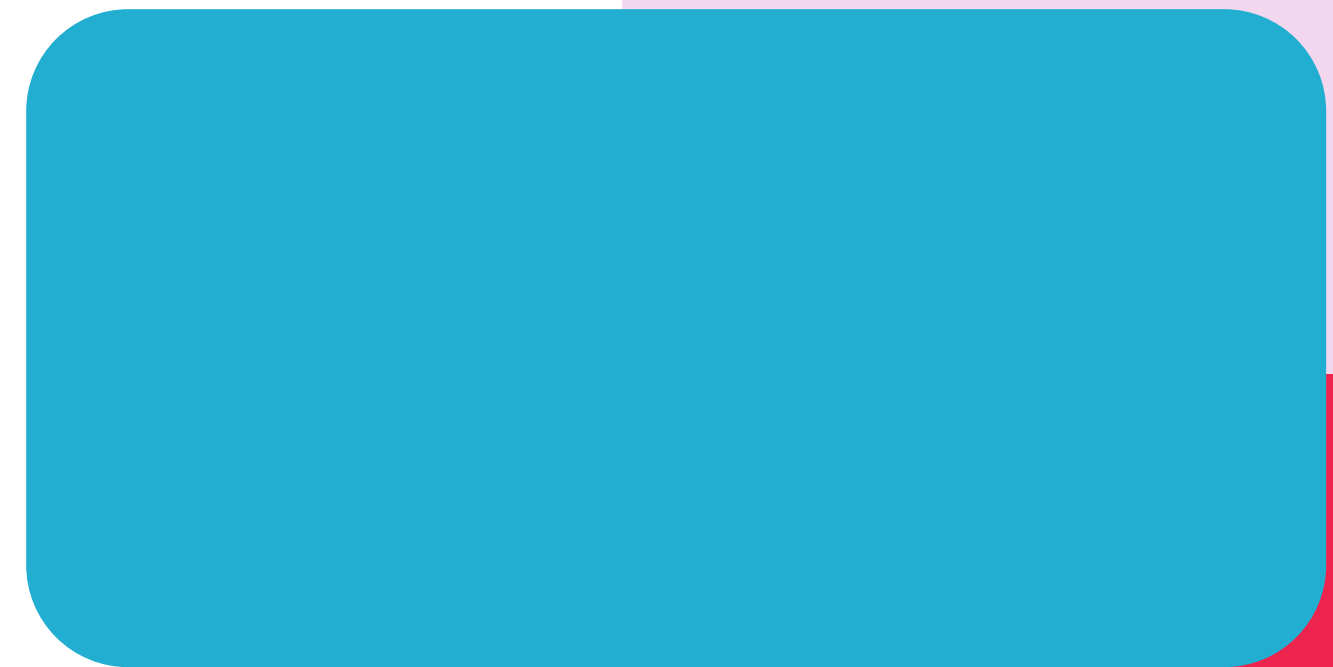

As a Shipping Agent, I want a button to open the editor of the selected ship, so that I can edit the information of it.

As a Shipping Agent, I want to be able to read the selected ship information, so that I can get a preview of the information that will be in the format.

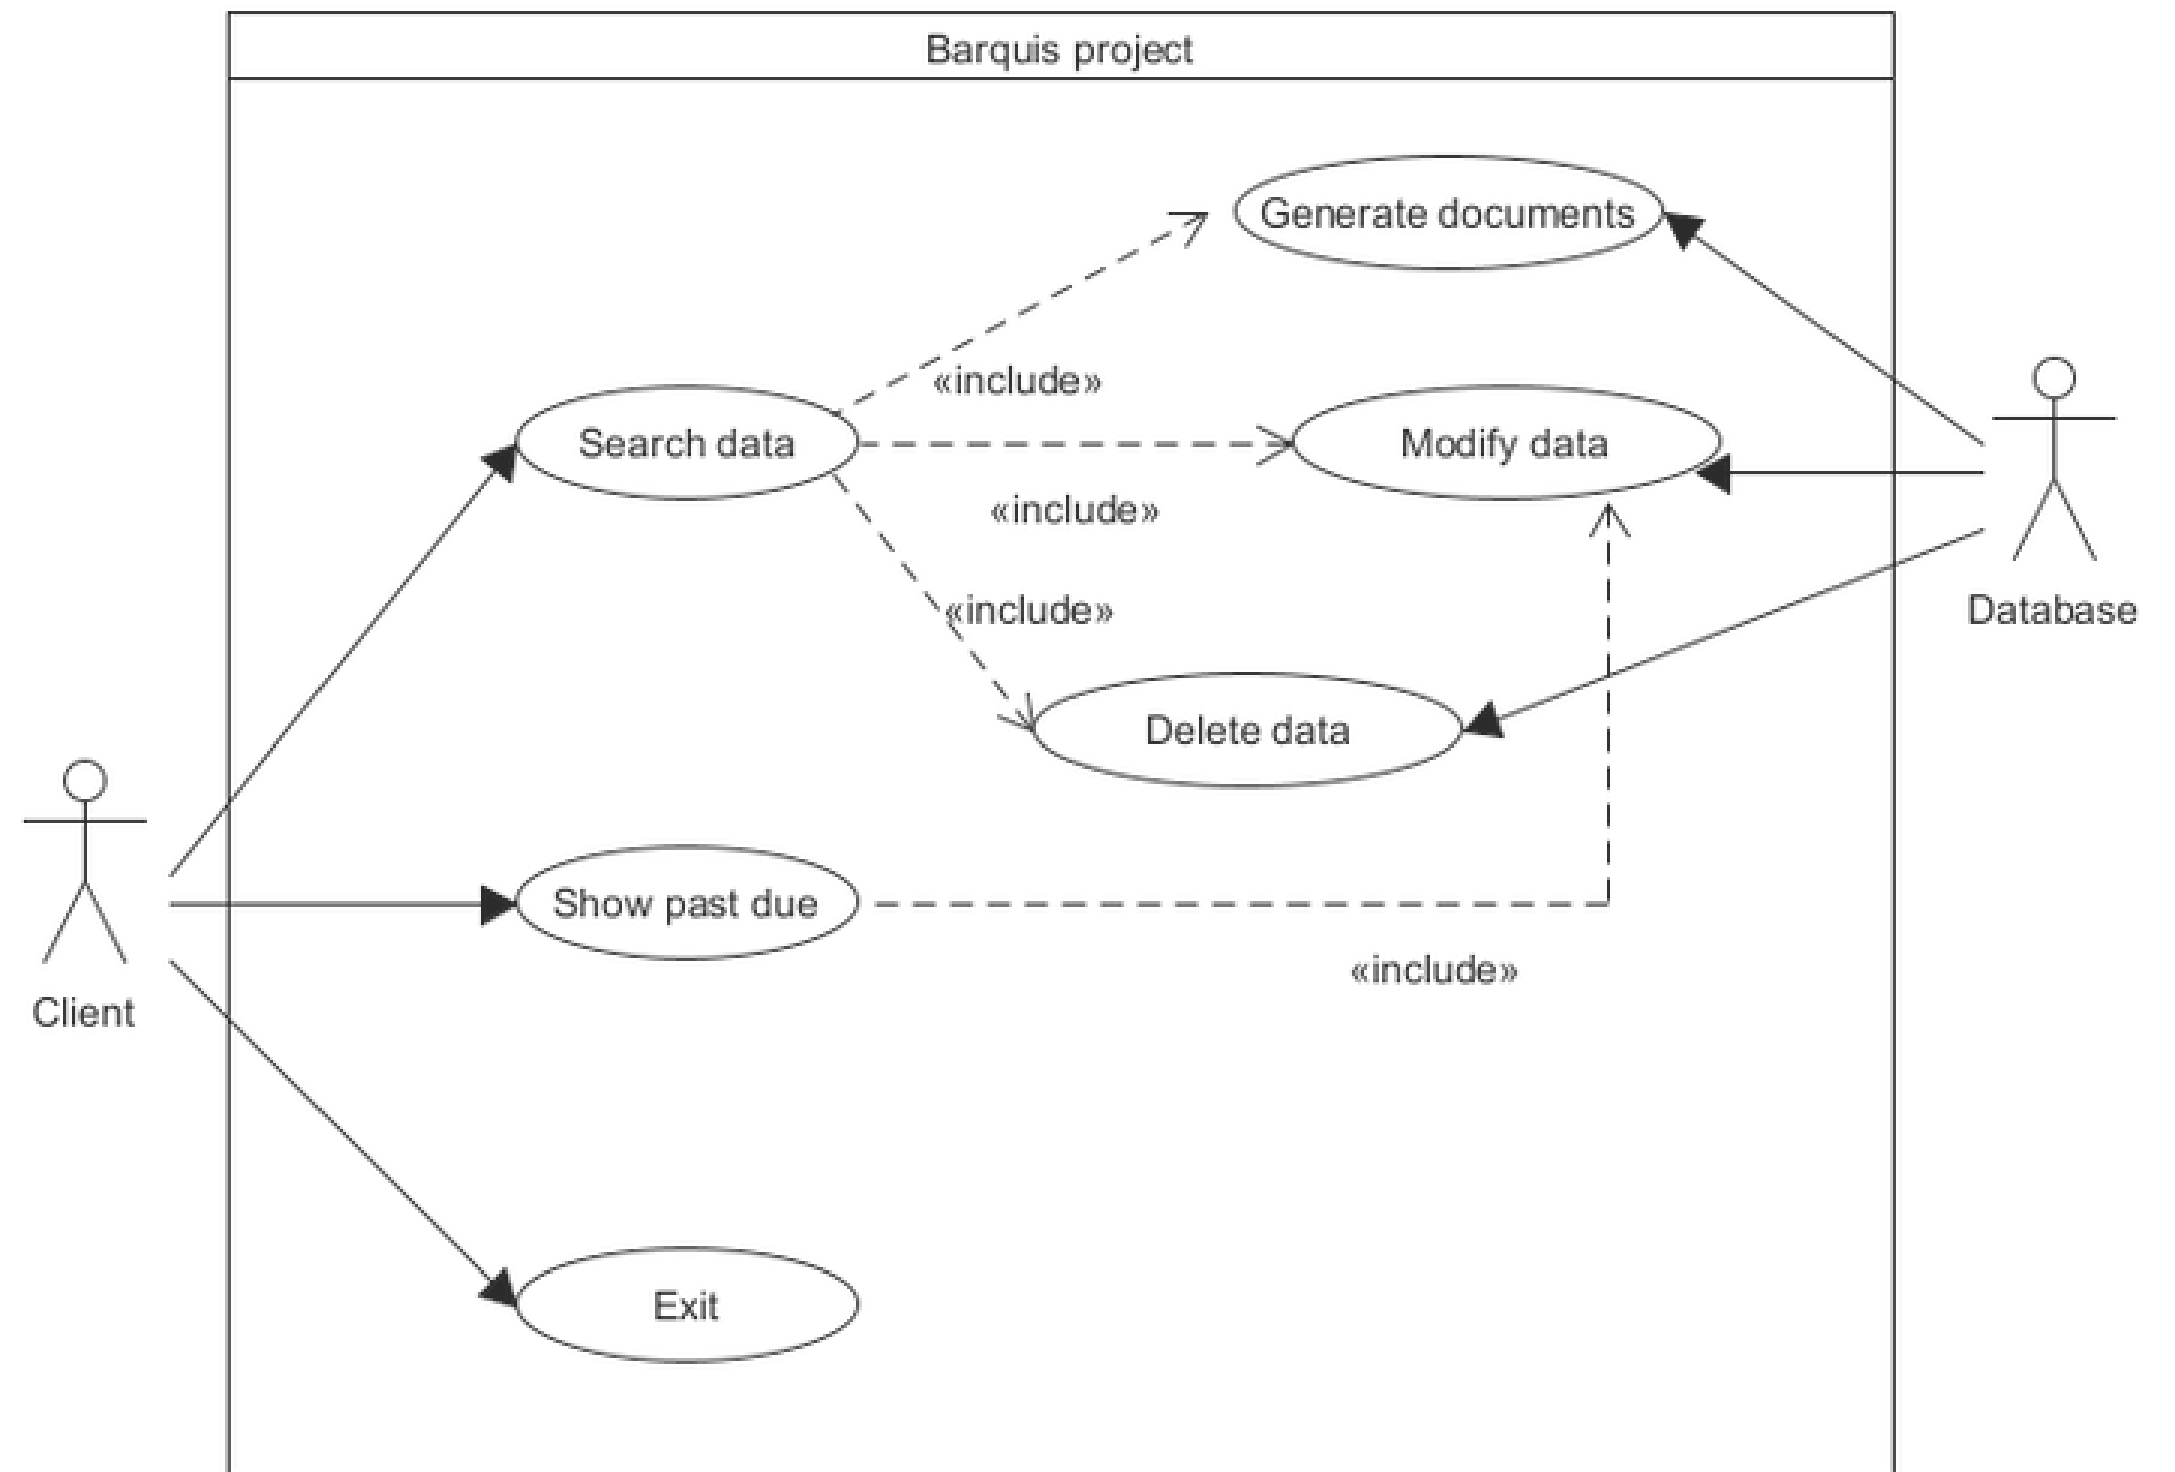

As a Shipping Agent, I want a button to transfer the selected ship information to a format so that I remit the sail permissions faster.

As a Shipping Agent, I want to save the information of the ships that I registered so that I don't have to register all the same information again.

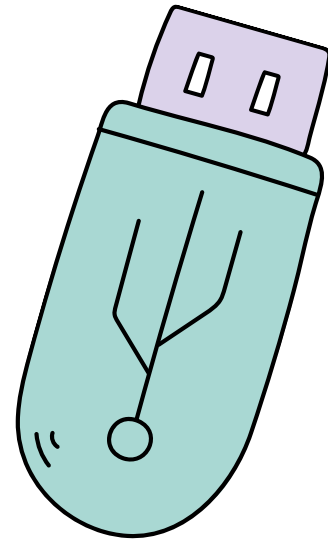

As a Shipping Agent, I want a button to register a new ship information so that I save the information of multiple ships.
